KEYNOTE PROGRAMS

PERSUASION VERSUS DEBATE

How Being Effective in Communication is Better Than Being Right

Arguing comes natural to people. We have an innate desire for control and a desire to be right. But just because we won the argument does not mean that we changed their mind.

THE COURAGE TO ASK

Unleashing Team Potential Through Questions and Collaboration

When challenges arise, we often jump to trying to solve the problem. Many of us take this approach in our businesses, in our personal relationships, and with our own personal challenges only to find out that we were solving for the wrong problem.
